Don't forget to register for the LCA

Conference! Here are a few reasons why you should: One, it's jam-packed with useful information for all areas of counseling; two, several classmates & professors will be presenting; three, it's always an excellent networking opportunity; and, four, this year it's in New Orleans!

Reminder:

We'll have our NAMI Walk table set up in the Danna Center on 9/3. Contact Nina Stewart if you'd like to help! alstewa2@loyno.edu

LETTER FROM THE BOARD . . .

Hi, y'all!

We are happy to announce that our After Hours at Nonna Mia was a success! We were able to send a generous donation directly to NAMI – all by having a delicious pizza dinner with friends! Your CSI Board is looking forward to having more events like this in the future.

As we wrap up the summer semester and move into a well-deserved break until our Fall classes begin, be sure to take time to recharge and focus on wellness and relaxation (in big or small ways!) before the start of a GREAT fall semester! Speaking of fall semester...Loyola's own St. Ignatius said, "Love is shown more in deeds than in words." Keep in mind that we're welcoming a new group of fantastic new counseling students in August; if you'd like to be a mentor for any of our newcomers, be sure to let Leigh Boyer know. Help spread your love for the counseling department by helping a new student make New Orleans and our department home!

Warmly,

Kaitlin Short

Secretary, Chi Sigma Iota: Alpha Phi Chapter
