

Synodality

Fall 2024

Study Online then in Rome for 8 Days

Examine Synodality and explore its implications for ministry and the life of faith today! This online course culminates in a week-long trip to Rome October 12-19, 2024 during the Second Session of the XVI General Assembly of Bishops.

As a result of taking this course, you will:

- be formed in the spiritual practices of synodality - encounter, active listening, communal discernment, co-responsibility for mission through collaboratively designed and facilitated programming
- understand key elements of Synodality from its roots in tradition, in light of Vatican II, and in contemporary developments.
- participate in synodal encounters with Church leaders while in Rome and to become synodal witnesses and animators in their home communities (campus, parish, diocese, etc.)

Professor Emily Jendzejec, Ph.D. epjendze@loyno.edu

Courses LIM-G794 Synodality (graduate) RELM-C494 Synodality (undergraduate)

Policies Permission of instructor required. Travel fees of $2,000 are associated with this course and include programming and lodging. Students are also responsible for airfare. Learn more here. Questions? Email the course instructor, Dr. Jendzejec, for more details: epjendze@loyno.edu.

LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY
NEW ORLEANS

COLLEGE OF
NURSING & HEALTH
Loyola Institute for Ministry