Loyola encourages students attempting to resolve issues or complaints to first discuss the matter with the individual most directly responsible for the decision in question.

Online students who decide to register a complaint with Loyola, may use the general student complaint form from the student's LORA account (<https://lora.loyno.edu/>) or they may complete their college Complaint Form. (This form is not to be used for grade or academic honesty appeals.)

Out-of-State-Online-Students

States operating under the State Authorization and Reciprocity Agreement \(SARA\) have agreed to allow their SARA state portal agency to investigate and resolve any complaints that have not been resolved through an institution's own procedures for resolution of grievances. Loyola is an approved SARA institution in Louisiana. As of 1/1/18, only CA and MA are not SARA states.

If you are a Loyola online student and live outside of Louisiana in a state currently participating in SARA www.nc-sara.org, and you are unable to resolve a complaint with Loyola, or you feel that not all issues were resolved with the final disposition, you may appeal to the Louisiana Board of Regents.
