

The Loyola University Institute for Ministry

The Jesuits entered the field of education at Loyola with the same boldness and ideals they used to help build the city of New Orleans. The Loyola Institute for Ministry continues that spirit of innovation as it offers life-changing dual degrees with the Department of Criminology and Justice.

Why should I earn dual master's degrees from Loyola University?

LIM has more than 45 years of experience in providing innovative, quality, and practical ministry education in the Jesuit tradition, and the Department of Criminology and Justice gives professionally-trained criminal justice administrators, planners, and researchers, as well as private security professionals, an educational credential for employment in this fast-growing field.

Can I complete this program by taking on-campus courses?

Yes, some Institute for Ministry classes may be taken on-campus.

Are the Institute for Ministry and Department of Criminology and Justice programs accredited?

Yes, the both programs are fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

For additional information, visit:

cnh.loyno.edu/lim

cas.loyno.edu/criminologyjustice

Master of Pastoral Studies and
Master of Criminal Justice
Dual Degrees

Loyola Institute for Ministry
6363 St. Charles Avenue
Campus Box 67
New Orleans, LA 70118
504.865.3728

LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY
NEW ORLEANS

“I would like to emphasize the importance of reflecting on the need for a criminal justice system that is not exclusively punitive, but open to hope and the prospect of reintegrating the offender into society.”

— Pope Francis, Angelus,
November 6, 2016

WHO PARTICIPATES?

- community organizers who wish to form creative alliances and coalitions between churches and justice institutions
- non-profit leaders seeking to learn how to do the empirical studies necessary to acquire federal and state funding for faith-based rehabilitation programs
- law enforcement professionals, including police, security personnel, probation officers, and others seeking an advanced credential
- lay ministers engaged in prison and rehabilitation ministries
- anyone interested in bridging the domains of religion and ministry with criminal justice

COSTS

Loyola offers discounts to Louisiana State Police, JPSO, NOPD, and St. Tammany sheriff's officers.

Reduced graduate tuition rates are offered by Loyola to all graduate students in LIM and Counseling courses. The tuition rates for Criminology & Justice is established in that departments.

CURRICULUM (60 credits)

Institute for Ministry Courses (30 credits)

Introduction to Practical Theology
Jewish Roots of Christian Faith
Christian Origins
Grace, Christ, & Spirit
Church, Sacraments, & Liturgy
Spirituality, Morality, & Ethics
Religion, Crime, & Justice
Introduction to Pastoral Care
Pastoral & Educational Praxis
Elective (Chosen in consultation with advisor)

Criminology & Justice Courses (30 credits)

Theories of Criminal Behavior
Research & Statistical Methods
Graduate Statistics
Program Planning, Implementation, & Evaluation
Seminar in Criminal Justice
Seminar in Criminal Justice Administration I
Selected Problems in Criminal Justice
Seminar in Criminology
Directed Readings in Criminal Justice
Master's Research & Practicum