Greetings Students, Faculty, and Alumni,

The Top Five Reasons to Attend the Louisiana Counseling Association Conference:

5. Vay-cay! You have been working hard this semester and taking a little trip to Lake Charles from October 7-9 would do you good!
4. Two words: casino resort. You can't beat a counseling conference at a casino resort!
3. The keynote speaker will be Froma Walsh, MSW, PhD, describing the resilience-oriented, community-based practice approach she developed to strengthen families in crisis. If it wasn't clear from the previous sentence, her work is really interesting! (Get more info at <http://www.lacounseling.org/>).
2. Your peers and professors will be doing the following cool presentations: Dr. Christine Ebrahim and Lisa Chew "Legal and Ethical Issues in School counseling: From Responding to a Subpoena to Dual Relationships and Everything in Between"; Dr. Levitov and Alison Phillips "The Psychological Effects of Metabolic Syndrome and Obesity: The Role of the Counselor"; Dr. Thomas Foster, Caitlyn Galjour, Jessica Alvendia, and Summer Keenan "Understanding Mid-lifers and Older Adults: Unique Perception of Wellness and the Clinical Implications"; Ariann Evans "Existential Group Therapy in Treating Drug Addicted Mothers"; Mary DePartout "Applying REBT to Irrational Beliefs held by Female College Students with Eating Disorders"; Jessie Roessler "Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Comorbid Asthma and Anxiety in Older Adults"; and Stephanie Robinson and Matthew Watson "Helping Parents Navigate the Adoption Process using Group Work."

1. You might learn something.

Sincerely,
Lisa Chew
