			Adjusts well to the agency and comes in with skills and knowledge of counseling and the process.
			Counseling; Teamwork
			Adaptable Takes initiative

			Kayla is an amazing coach, counselor, supervisor for our 6 program managers who work directly with vulnerable teens and volunteer mentors at our teen empowerment program. She is incredibly intuitive, attuned, aware, good at boundary setting, empathetic, thoughtful, creative, organized, supportive.
			All the areas I note above.
			She performs all of the skills expected professionally, ethically, and effectively.

			I have concerns about Kayla burning out because she gives so much to her team. I also worry about the high standards she sets for herself being too high, too much pressure. I have asked her to care a bit less about her performance/her job so she can have more spacious time in her work and also feel free from work during her off-time.
