

Friday March 5, 2021
9 AM - 10 AM via Zoom

presents

Suicide Prevention Training

Continuing Education Event for Mental Health Professionals & Student Clinicians

Objectives for this one-hour presentation:

- Introduction to the field of suicidology
- Tools for interviewing clients with suicidal ideation
- Initial comprehension of suicidal dynamics from a psychoanalytical perspective
- Using one's feelings of countertransference towards clients for risk assessment

Featuring

Peter Theiss-Abendroth, MD, from Berlin, Germany, a senior level psychiatrist, psychotherapist, psychoanalyst, and professor of psychology.

Peter Theiss-Abendroth has long-standing experience in various clinical settings and now works in private practice with a focus on psychotic clients and on the local community of Portuguese-speaking immigrants. In his publications he researches the meanings of trauma in specific cultural and historical contexts. He teaches as tenured professor at Touro College Berlin and as lecturer, supervisor and training therapist in Berliner Akademie für Psychotherapie and Berliner Institut für Psychotherapie und Psychoanalyse.

To register and receive the zoom link & suggested reading, email LCCE@loyno.edu.
For questions or more information, call 504-864-7858

NBCC Approved. One complimentary continuing education unit.

This educational event is free of charge thanks to generous support from:

