X. Comments:
1. In which areas could the supervisee(s) have been more adequately prepared?
	1	12%	Group work
	1	12%	I do not find any significant, or problematic issues, to be present in my Loyola students. They are more than adequately prepared for site work.
	1	12%	None
	1	12%	They should be encouraged to join and be active in LCA

	1	12%	General professionalism was my only concern in regards to the supervisees. I also feel it should be noted that one intern completed their internship during Covid, which may have impacted professionalism, as it was a difficult time to navigate as a school counselor.
	1	12%	Both supervisees demonstrated skills/capacity at or above level of development/training.
	2	25%	Not Answered
2. In which areas where the supervisee(s) exceptionally prepared?
	1	12%	Assessment and individual counseling
	1	12%	Loyola supervisees come exceptionally prepared in regards to their training and knowledge of ethics in the field, and in the conceptualization of clients from a multicultural lens. Loyola supervisees that I have worked with also consistently present themselves professionally, more so than I feel could be typically expected of for practicum students at a site for the first time. They are very well prepared, and very well supported. They are not only a pleasure to have on staff, and contribute greatly to the services we are able to provide to our community.
	1	12%	Intervention and engagement skills were excellent!
	1	12%	Both were well versed in theory and social advocacy and justice.
	1	12%	Engagement/relationship building, empathic approaches, deep curiosity, willingness/eagerness to grow/develop themselves as helping professionals.
